COMPLAINT

This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex (including but not limited to sexual harassment), and to provide appropriate relief to the Charging Party, Faith Nicholson (hereinafter "Charging Party"), who was adversely affected by such practices. The Commission alleges that the Charging Party was subjected to a sexually hostile work environment and that the Defendant failed to take prompt effective remedial action to end the harassment. As a result of the sexual harassment, the conditions of her employment were made so intolerable that she was forced to resign.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1343 and 1345. This action is authorized and instituted pursuant to Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3) (Title VII), and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a.

2. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful were committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “Commission”), is the agency of the United States of America charged with the administration, interpretation and enforcement of Title VII and is expressly authorized to bring this action by Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII, 28 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3).

4. At all relevant times, Defendant K & S Services (the “Defendant”) has continuously been a corporation doing business in the State of Georgia and the city of Atlanta, and has continuously had at least 15 employees.

5. At all relevant times, Defendant has continuously been an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce under Section 701(b), (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e(b), (g) and (h).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

6. More than 30 days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, the Charging Party filed a charge of discrimination with the Commission alleging a violation of Title VII by Defendant. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

7. Since at least February 2006, Defendant engaged in unlawful employment practices, in violation of Section 703(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §2000e-2(a), by subjecting the Charging Party to

- (a) sexual harassment; and
- (b) constructive discharge.

8. The effects of the practices complained of in paragraph 7 above have been to deprive the Charging Party of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee because of her sex, female.

9. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 7 above were intentional and were carried out with malice and/or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of the Charging Party.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant, its officers, successors, assigns and all persons in active concert or participation with it, from engaging in sexual harassment against employees, creating intolerable working conditions the effect of which forces employees to resign their employment, and engaging in any other employment practice which discriminates on the basis of sex.

B. Order Defendant to institute and carry out policies, practices, and programs which provide equal employment opportunities for all employees and which eradicate the effects of its past and present unlawful employment practices.

C. Order Defendant to make whole the Charging Party, who was adversely affected by Defendant's discriminatory conduct, by providing appropriate back pay with prejudgment interest, in amounts to be determined at trial, and other affirmative relief necessary to eradicate the effects of its unlawful employment practices.

D. Order Defendant to make whole the Charging Party by providing compensation for past and future pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above, including job search expenses, in amounts to be determined at trial.

E. Order Defendant to make whole the Charging Party by providing compensation for non-pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above, including emotional pain and suffering, anxiety, stress, depression, and humiliation, in amounts to be determined at trial.

F. Order Defendant to pay to the Charging Party punitive damages for Defendant's malicious and reckless conduct described above, in amounts to be determined at trial.

G. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper.

H. Award the Commission its costs in this action.
